

will future

There are several different forms used when talking about the future.

This work sheet focuses on the use of „will“:

„will“ remains the same for each person

„will“ can be shortened to „ ‘ll“ when used in conjunction with another word.

I ‘ll be in the office tomorrow.

He ‘ll play tennis next week.

We ‘ll win the game.

For negations you use „won‘t“.

„Will not“ is only used when something should be emphasised.

I won‘t be in the office tomorrow.

He won‘t play tennis next week.

We won‘t win the game.

Fill in will or won‘t:

Will you be here tomorrow?

Yes, I will.

I will be here.

No, I won‘t.

I won‘t be here.

Will they see her next week?

Yes, they will.

They will see her.

No, they won‘t.

They won‘t see here.

Will Anita arrive before dinner?

Yes, she will.

No, she won‘t.

What will Henry do tomorrow?

He will go for a walk with his friend Joe.

He will help his dad in the garden.

He will have lunch with his grandma.

He will play tennis with David.

He will have dinner with Carol.
